Subject: RE: [epa_bristolbay] EPA seeks scientist nominations for Bristol Bay Watershed Assessment peer review panel

Hi Tami, What is the right way to nominate? Do we just give you a name and brief history? If so we would like to nominate George (Sonny) Wilson Jr, originally from Igiugig Ak, currently living in Naknek Ak, deeply rooted in the Kvichak area, altho he is not a scientist or what not, he knows the area well and I have already been on a team we feel we need someone from the Kvichak area to sit on the board. Any questions please let me know, I have already introduce George (Sonny) to Rick Parkins in a letter.
Thanks

Greg Andrew, Jr.

> On Feb. 24, EPA launched the process to nominate qualified scientists > for an external peer review panel that will evaluate EPA's draft Bristol > Bay Watershed Assessment. The nomination period runs from Feb. 24 to > March 9.
> Nominees for the peer review panel should have background knowledge and > expertise in one or more of the following areas:
> Mining, particularly porphyry copper
> Salmon fisheries biology
> Surface, subsurface or watershed hydrology > Aquatic ecology
> Biogeochemistry
> Seismology
> Ecotoxicology
> Wildlife ecology
> Indigenous Alaskan cultures
> An independent contractor will accept nominations online.
> Final peer review panel members will be selected by the contractor > based upon the following criteria:
> Demonstrated expertise through relevant peer reviewed publications > Professional accomplishments and recognition by professional > societies
> Demonstrated ability to work constructively and effectively in a > committee setting
> Absence of financial conflicts of interest
> No actual conflicts of interest or the appearance of bias > Willingness to commit adequate time for a thorough review of the > assessment report commencing in late April 2012
> In-person participation at a peer review panel meeting in
